

Year 5 / Spring / Creativity / Supporting Bookshelf

Article 2

The Convention applies to every child without discrimination, whatever their ethnicity, gender, religion, or any other status.

Article 13

Children have the right to find out information and to share ideas, unless it may harm themselves or anyone else.

Article 28

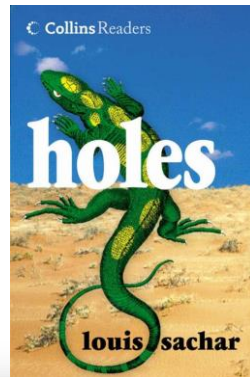

Education must develop every child's personality, talents and abilities to the full.

Article 32

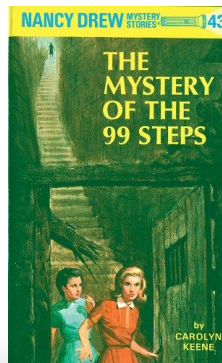

Governments must protect children from work that is dangerous, harmful to their health, or that interferes with their education.

Little People
Big Dreams:
Mae Jemison
 Maria Isabel
Sanchez Vegara

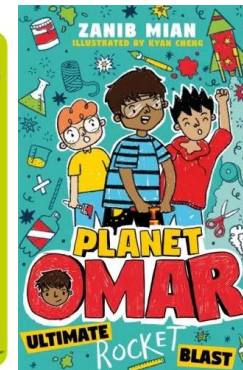

Holes
 Louis
Sacher

The Mystery of the 99
Steps
 Carolyn
Keene

Arsenic for Tea
 Robin
Stevens

Planet Omar: Ultimate
Rocket Blast
 Zanib Mian

Secrets of a Sun King
 Emma Carroll